

National AIDS Research Institute (NARI) conducted the regional Training of trainers (TOT) at Pune between 4th to 6th January 2017 for the HIV Sentinel Surveillance Program which is to be implemented from 1st of February 2017 at ANC and HRG Sentinel Sites for the Western Indian States /Union Territory: Maharashtra (Including Mumbai), Gujarat, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Goa, Diu Daman and Dadra Nagar Haveli. This training was attended by 90 participants with representatives from the respective State AIDS Control Societies, State Surveillance Team members and resource persons from National AIDS Research Institute, National AIDS Control Organization and World Health Organization.

