

11th April 2018

Report of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan Activities

Community: Wadarwadi Slum Area, Behind NARI ARTC, Model colony Clinic, Pune

A community based activity was conducted regarding Health and Hygiene Awareness at Wadarwadi Slum Area, Behind NARI ARTC, Model colony Clinic, Pune by National AIDS Research Institute (NARI).

The urban slum area was selected for the community activities and the beneficiaries mainly included school going children and the adult population in the community.

Team: Dr. Pallavi Shidhaye, Mrs.Rajani Bagul, Mr.Vinayak Chavan , Mr.Keshav Gadhe, Mr.Sachin Dhondge conducted the following activities in the community and Students from of Sadhu Vaswani College of Nursing, Pune.

Time	Activities
10.00am-10.10am	Rapport building with the community (Pamphlets distribution regarding hygiene awareness)
10:10 am – 10:20am	Interaction with community regarding hygiene awareness and assessing the prior knowledge
10:20 am – 10:40am	Street play performed by Nursing students of Sadhu Vaswani College of Nursing, Pune.
10:40 am – 10:50am	Demonstration of Hand washing technique by the NARI staff
10:50 am – 11:00am	Demonstration of Hand washing technique by the volunteers (Children) from the community
11:00 am – 11:15am	Wrap up and Gift distribution (soaps) to children demonstrating correct technique of Hand washing

Photography were done by Mr. Satish (Driver), and Mr. Ram(Attendant)

Following are the photos Photographs attached for the same.

Rapport building with the community

Street play

Community Participation

Demonstration of Hand washing technique

Demonstration of Hand washing by the volunteer from the community

Prize distribution to the volunteers

Team Work

